Finding aid updated: Edythe Huffman, 11/16/2015

Organizational History:

During 1935-1938, the Delaware County Jail was located at 218 N. High, Muncie, Indiana. No information is known about the jail matron that created the diaries.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection consists of work diaries of an unidentified jail matron in Muncie, Delaware County, Indiana during the years 1935-1938. The matron's responsibilities primarily involved relief assistance to the poor in Muncie, rather than work with jail inmates. The diaries detail the amount of relief given each day and name who received the aid.
